I'm studying Content development and production (BA Hons), a course designed to cover all aspects of television pre, post and production. We're trained vocationally to enact the roles of researchers, producers, directors and writers. I also interact with many other contributors from other courses in the context of varied collaborative projects.

Credits & Experience

I have over 30 credits on university productions as a composer, writer, director or producer.

As well as presenting my own radio show on 'Rave radio', 'Video Killed the Radio star' would feature a variety of guest presenters each week, as well as an exploration into a 'New Wave' of radio.

Having performed, recorded or composed with bands and artists over the last 5 years, I have a lot of experience in live performance; playing guitar, piano and having capabilities to model a full orchestra.

I worked in RNIB producing audio books in 2008.

My skills and dedication can be applied to most tasks; my dedication is an attribute to my professional attitude.
